

NEWSLETTER CHRISTMAS EDITION

December 2020 to January 2021

We Fly Africa's team wishes you a Merry Christmas & a Happy New Year 2021. After a long period of lockdown we hope for a pleasant festive season and a more prosperous year 2021. We expect the reopening of all routes for local and international flights so that tourists can travel freely again. If you are staying around Johannesburg, have a look at our daily packages. We offer special getaways to end the year and fly over the Gauteng province.

We Fly Africa, an unlimited fleet

Working with the most reputable charter companies in Africa enable us to source the best aircraft for your needs. At We Fly Africa, we ensure safety, quality, flexibility, price and social responsibility.

Our fleet comprises of Private Jets and all types of Charter Aircraft from 30 seats to 550 seats. Private jets includes single piston engines, twin piston, twin turbo prop jets, twin turbo fan jets. Click here to view our fleet.

Prize Sponsors at the Beaujolais Nouveau

We Fly Africa was present at the Beaujolais Nouveau 2020 organized by the French South African Chamber of Commerce & Industry. As part of the prize sponsors for the raffle, We Fly Africa offered a private flight for two persons from Johannesburg to Hartbeespoort, through the Magaliesburg (view the article Where to go around Joburg). We hope it will inspire you to fly with us!

Luxury Lodges "Coup de Coeur"

Two fantastic destinations we would like to recommend:

Singita Luxury Lodge offers a unique experience in the wilderness and is dedicated to environmentally conscious hospitality, sustainable conservation and the empowerment of local communities.

Thornybush Luxury Lodge proposes spectacular sightings where guests can enjoy the comfort and luxury of the place as well as the diversity of safaris offered.

Both lodges are accessible by flight with private landing strips to facilitate your mobility and travel time. Please contact us for a quote at info@weflyafrica.co.za
